Form W-4 (2016)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2016 expires February 15, 2017. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older.
- Is blind, or
- · Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income. or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2016. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Arizona law requires your employer to withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for work done in Arizona. The amount withheld is applied to your Arizona income tax due when you file your tax return. The amount withheld is a percentage of your gross taxable wages from every paycheck. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. Complete this form to select a percentage and any extra amount to be withheld from each paycheck.

What are my "Gross Taxable Wages"?

For withholding purposes, your "gross taxable wages" are the wages that will generally be in box 1 of your federal Form W-2. It is your gross wages less any pretax deductions, such as your share of health insurance premiums.

New Employees

Complete this form within the first five days of your employment to select an Arizona withholding percentage. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. If you do not give this form to your employer the department requires your employer to withhold 2.7% of your gross taxable wages.

Current Employees

If you want to change your current amount withheld, you must file this form to change the Arizona withholding percentage or to change the extra amount withheld.

What Should I do With Form A-4?

Give your completed Form A-4 to your employer.

Electing a Withholding Percentage of Zero

You may elect an Arizona withholding percentage of zero if you expect to have no Arizona income tax liability for the current year. Arizona tax liability is gross tax liability less any tax credits, such as the family tax credit, school tax credits, or credits for taxes paid to other states. If you make this election, your employer will not withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for payroll periods beginning after the date you file the form. To keep this election for the next calendar year, you must give your employer an updated Form A-4. If you do not, your employer may withhold Arizona income tax from your wages and salary until you submit an updated Form A-4.

Zero withholding does not relieve you from paying Arizona income taxes that might be due at the time you file your Arizona income tax return. If you have an Arizona tax liability when you file your return or if at any time during the current year conditions change so that you expect to have a tax liability, you should promptly file a new Form A-4 and choose a withholding percentage that applies to you.

Voluntary Withholding Election by Certain Nonresident Employees

Compensation earned by nonresidents while physically working in Arizona for temporary periods is subject to Arizona income tax. However, under Arizona law, compensation paid to certain nonresident employees is not subject to Arizona income tax withholding. These nonresident employees need to review their situations and determine if they should elect to have Arizona income taxes withheld from their Arizona source compensation. Nonresident employees may request that their employer withhold Arizona income taxes by completing this form to elect Arizona income tax withholding.

WHITTON COMPANIES EQUIPMENT POLICY

VER.JUN-29-2021

Whitton Companies has been outstandingly generous over the years by supplying all of our divisions with top quality new tools to aid in getting the job done easier and faster. All equipment was new at the start of its service, and over the past year we have tried to utilize the existing equipment that we have already purchased in order to keep our cost competitive. We readily replace equipment that is no longer cost effective to repair or poses a safety issue to the field. Whitton has also gone above and beyond what most would consider company responsibility through absorbing the cost of damaged machines, parts stripped off in the field, missing parts and a lack of responsibility from the equipment operator and crew responsible for using the item. We are again at a very competitive time and all company expenses detract from our bottom line. The warehouse crews do their best to keep your trucks loaded and equipment operational. Whitton crews try to get all gas cans filled and periodically check oil levels, but it is the users responsibility to ensure the equipment they are operating is maintained properly be checking fluid levels, ensuring any parts removed in the field to service equipment, are immediately replaced. Missing parts may cause safety issues for the operator and those working near the equipment.

Backcharge Agreement

VER. JUN-29-2021

To: All Employees

Sincerely,

Subject: Policy Enforcement

All employees of Whitton Companies are now subject to a new program starting March 1st 2014. This new program is designed to improve the quality of workmanship provided to our valued customers and help improve the skills of all employees.

When work is not done correctly, our customers give us a back charge. This is money taken directly from the payments we receive for work completed because of corrections needed. These back charges not only cost money but also damage our reputation and ability to get future work.

We are making a strong commitment to reduce these charges and make this a better company for everyone to work for. We hope you will take pride in your work and make a stronger effort to learn and develop your skills that you have been hired to do. Many of you already do this and we sincerely appreciate this effort.

This new program will be simple. When we receive a back charge, we will identify the responsible employee, if after review, it is determined that the employee is at fault, then the employee will be notified in writing up to three times. The first and second time, the employee is strongly encouraged to improve the quality of work and contact his manager if there are questions or feedback. The third time the employee and manager are required to attend a special training session and to discuss how this problem can be eliminated.

Each of these written notifications will serve as formal reprimands and will be placed permanently in your employee file. We hope this new program will reduce our back charges significantly and hope you will support us in this effort.

A: Todos Los Empleados Asunto: Implementar Poliza Nueva

Todos los empleados de Whitton Companies a partir del 1 de marzo del 2014 la empresa implementara un programa nuevo. Este programa está diseñado para mejorar la calidad de la mano de obra proporcionada a nuestros valiosos clientes al igual que para mejorar las habilidades de todos los empleados.

Cuando el trabajo no se realiza correctamente, nuestros clientes nos hacen un recargo. Debido a las correciones que se tienen que hacer, el recargo es pagado directamente del dinero ya recibido por el trabajo terminado. Estos recargos no sólo cuestan dinero, pero también dañan nuestra reputación y afecta el poder conseguir trabajo en el futuro.

Estamos haciendo un fuerte esfuerzo por reducir estos recargos y hacer de esta una mejor compañía para todos los que trabajan en ella. Esperamos que se enorgullezcan de su trabajo y hagan un mayor esfuerzo por aprender y desarollar las habilidades por las cuales se les contrataron. Muchos de ustedes ya lo hacen y apreciamos sinceramente su esfuerzo.

Este nuevo programa será sencillo. Cuando recibamos un recargo vamos a identificar al empleado responsable, si después de la revisión se determina que el empleado tiene la culpa, entonces al empleado se le notificará por escrito hasta tres veces. La primera y segunda vez el empleado sera animado a mejorar la calidad de su trabajo y contactar a su manejador si tiene alguna pregunta o comentarios. La tercera vez que recibamos un recargo, el trabajador y su manejador seran obligados a asistir a una sesión especial de entrenamiento para discutir cómo este problema puede ser eliminado.

Cada una de estas notificaciones escritas servirá como avisos formales y se colocarán de forma permanente en su expediente. Esperamos que este nuevo programa reduzca recargos de manera significativa con la ayuda de todos ustedes.

Sinceramente,

ANTI-HARASSMENT, ANTI DISCRIMINATION AND ANTI-RETALIATION POLICY

VER. JUN-29-2021

A fundamental policy of the Company is that the workplace is for work. Our goal is to provide a workplace free from tensions involving matters that do not relate to the Company's business. In particular, an atmosphere of tension created by non-work-related conduct, including ethnic, racial, national origin, disability, age, sexual or religious remarks, animosity, unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other such conduct does not belong in our workplace. Do not engage in inappropriate conduct or comments based on age (40 and over), race, national origin, ethnicity, religion, sex (including pregnancy), gender, disability, or other protected categories.

Harassment, discrimination and retaliation can be a violation of state and federal laws if it is used as the basis for employment decisions or has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. The Company's policy against harassment, discrimination and retaliation is much stricter than what the law requires because we have higher standards for our employees.

Harassment, discrimination and retaliation of employees or of applicants is prohibited. Harassment and discrimination includes, without limitation: verbal (derogatory statements, slurs, teasing, jokes, epithets and innuendo); physical (sexual and person touching, assault, physical interference with normal work or involvement); and visual (posters, cartoons, drawings, computer materials, sexual gestures).

Examples of Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation

Sexual harassment or discrimination includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact and other verbal or physical conduct, or visual forms of harassment of a sexual nature. Examples of harassment, discrimination and retaliation can include but are not limited to, the following:

- 1. Making a sexual or suggestive remark or gesture about any person's clothing, physical appearance or body (including whistling or "cat calls" and gestures using hand or body movements);
- 2. Referring to a person using a slang term or nickname that has a sexual, racial or ethnic connotation (such as "babe," "honey," "hunk," "stud," etc.);
- 3. Asking another employee for a date or making a sexual proposition when such an invitation is unwelcome to the other person;
- 4. Commenting about or asking unsolicited personal questions about another employee's sexual activities or social life;
- 5. Using vulgar or profane language, joking, telling a story, teasing, insulting or making an innuendo about a sexual subject;
- 6. Touching or brushing against another person in an unauthorized, personal or offensive manner (contact that is not accidental or incidental);
- 7. Staring or looking at another person in an offensive or improper way (including "elevator eyes" looking up and down at an employee);
- 8. Bringing any sexually provocative or suggestive magazines, pictures, drawings, cartoons, calendars or objects into the workplace or viewing or retrieving such materials on any office computer.
- 9. Communicating that an employee will receive a job benefit or threatening to take unfavorable action against an employee based upon whether the employee submits to sexual conduct.
- 10. Targeting an employee who has made a complaint about harassment, discrimination or retaliation.

The Company will do its best to keep the workplace free of any conduct which creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment for our employees. Your cooperation is needed to achieve the goal by reporting incidents of harassment, discrimination or retaliation.

What To Do If You Feel Our Anti-Harassment, Anti-Discrimination and Anti-Retaliation Policy Has Been Violated

In the event that you see or hear of any conduct that violates this policy, we urge you to contact your supervisor or the supervisor of the department of the person who committed the conduct. You may also contact the Human Resources Department or the President. The Company will, to the extent possible, treat the matter with the degree of confidentiality that is appropriate under the circumstances. You should report any harassment, discrimination or retaliation, even if the person committing the conduct is not an employee of the Company. The Company's policy is to take appropriate action to protect its employees from harassment, discrimination or retaliation, regardless of who commits the harassment, discrimination or retaliation. Charges of harassment, discrimination and retaliation will be investigated. If the Company determines that harassment, discrimination or retaliation has occurred, appropriate corrective and/or disciplinary action against the person who violated this policy will be taken, up to and including termination. The Company will not tolerate retaliation against any employee for complaining about harassment, discrimination, or providing information in connection with any complaint. The Company wants and encourages its employees to report any potential harassment, discrimination or retaliation. Employees are required to cooperate with the Company during any investigation of harassment, discrimination or retaliation by providing information about any matters under investigation.

Social Media Policy

At Whitton Plumbing, Whitton Concrete, Whitton Framing and Whitton Management, hereafter referred to as (Whitton Companies), we understand that social media can be a fun and rewarding way to share your life and opinions with family, friends and co-workers around the world. The same principles and guidelines found in Whitton Companies policies and three basic beliefs apply to your activities online. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for what you post online. Be respectful

Always be fair and courteous to fellow associates, customers, members, suppliers or people who work on behalf of Whitton Companies. Also, keep in mind that you are more likely to resolved work related complaints by speaking directly with your co-workers or by utilizing our Open Door Policy than by posting complaints to a social media outlet. Nevertheless, if you decide to post complaints or criticism, avoid using statements, photographs, video or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening or intimidating, that disparage customers, members, associates or suppliers, or that might constitute harassment or bullying. Examples of such conduct might include offensive posts meant to intentionally harm someone's reputation or posts that could contribute to a hostile work environment on the basis of race, sex, disability, religion or any other status protected by law or company policy.

Be honest and accurate

Make sure you are always honest and accurate when posting information or news, and if you make a mistake, correct it quickly. Be open about any previous posts you have altered. Remember that the Internet archives almost everything; therefore, even deleted postings can be searched. Arizona passes ban on cellphone use while driving. April 22, 2019

VER. JUN-29-2021

The law specifically prohibits drivers from any kind of cellphone use while driving — including to talk, text, type or browse social-media sites — unless they are using the device in a hands-free mode.

The following cellphone use is against the law while driving:

- Holding a cellphone in any way while talking on the phone, including propping it up with a shoulder.
- Writing, sending or reading any text-based communication including a text, instant message or email.
- Watching any kind of video, or recording video.

The following cellphone use is allowed while driving:

- Talking on the phone if using an earpiece, headphone device or device worn on a wrist.
- Using voice-based communication, such as a talk-to-text function.
- Using a
- GPS system.
- Using a handheld cellphone to call 911.

The law applies not just to cellphones but to any kind of portable wireless communication device or standalone electronic device.

There are certain exceptions, including for officials who respond to emergencies, and people who are witnessing a crime or in need of emergency help.

Police officers can issue warnings to drivers immediately.

In 2021, officers who see drivers using their phones can cite them.

Breaking the law is a primary offense, which means that police can pull over drivers for this reason alone.

The first time, a driver will be fined between $75 and $149. The second time and every time after that, a driver will be fined between $150 and $250.

Before Arizona enacted the statewide ban, many cities in Arizona already banned cellphone use while driving in some form. In the cities that already ban hand-held cellphone use while driving, those laws will stay in effect until the state law replaces them on Jan 1, 2021.

In the Phoenix area:

- El Mirage prohibits handheld-cellphone use while driving.
- Fountain Hills prohibits texting while driving.
- Glendale prohibits handheld-cellphone use while driving.
- Phoenix prohibits texting while driving.
- Surprise prohibits handheld-cellphone use while driving.
- Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community prohibits texting while driving.
- Tempe prohibits handheld-cellphone use while driving.
